

Living Online

Course Description

The Internet, and the services based within, is rapidly becoming a place of intense toxicity. In addition, the inability to treat others with respect online is a growing issue for all members of society. This course is based around online interactions and addresses how etiquette applies to the digital world. Topics of discussion include social media, ecommerce, cyberbullying and effective online research among others.

Instructor:

*Brian Weick
Room 122
brian.weick@central301.net
847.717.8100*

Course Materials Required:

- Headphones/Earbuds
- Chromebook

Resources:

- D301 Canvas

Course Outline

Unit	Topics
Digital Communication	Pros/Cons of Technology Digital Citizenship Basics What is the Internet? ISPs Transferring Information

Living Online

Stay Safe Online	Types of Websites Searching Online Internet Safety Strategies Cyberbullying
Identity Safety	Personal vs Private Information Keep Identity Safe Identity Theft Secure Passwords Safe Usernames Online Threats Malware
Research &amp; Evaluate	Evaluate Websites Copyright Intellectual Property Fair Use Creative Commons
Gather &amp; Analyze Data	Gathering Data Entering Data Developing Formulas Analyzing Data

Major Course Assignments/Assessments

- Digital Communication Presentation
- Cyberbullying Poster
- Identity Safety Presentation
- Research/Evaluate Sources Website

Living Online

- Gather/Analyze Data Sheets

Grading Procedures:

- Grades are based on student performance during large projects and their thought process throughout units.

Grades will be determined by the following category weights:

Category	Percentage
Projects	100%

Late Work Policies (Please see Handbook for Absence policies.)

Timeframe for makeup work:

Students receive one extra work day per each absence day. Makeup work must be submitted, and the teacher notified, before that deadline passes.

Procedure to follow to retrieve and submit makeup work:

- 1. Check the Canvas calendar*
- 2. Review Canvas for materials*
- 3. Complete coursework*
- 4. Submit coursework*
- 5. Email instructor stating work was submitted*